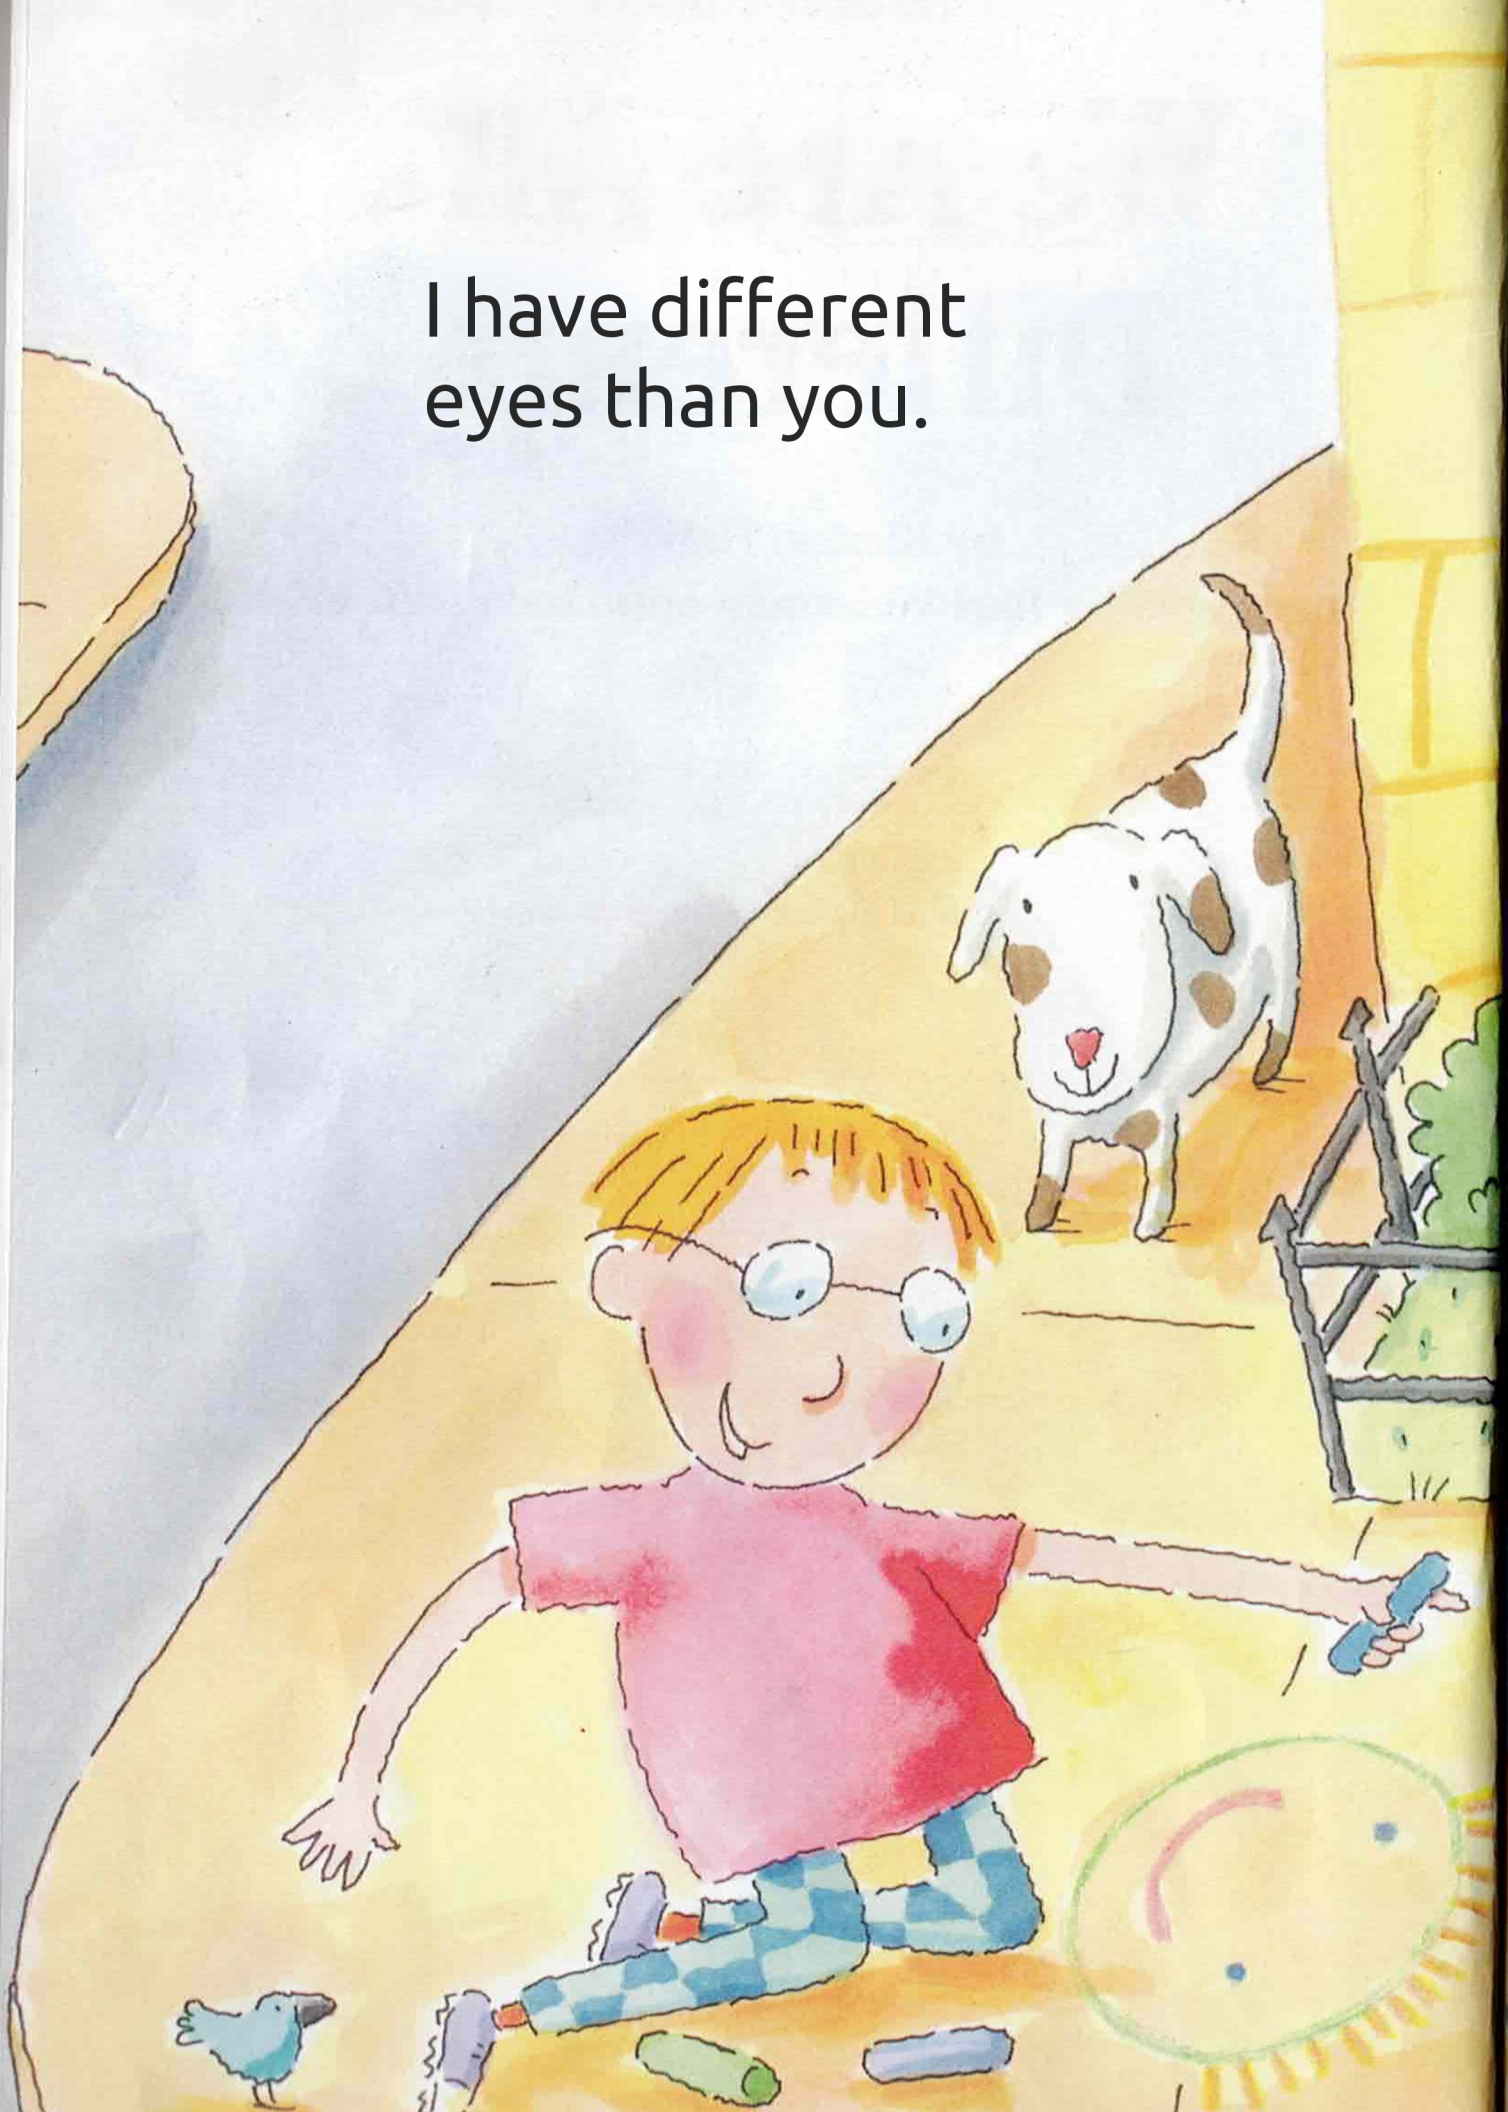
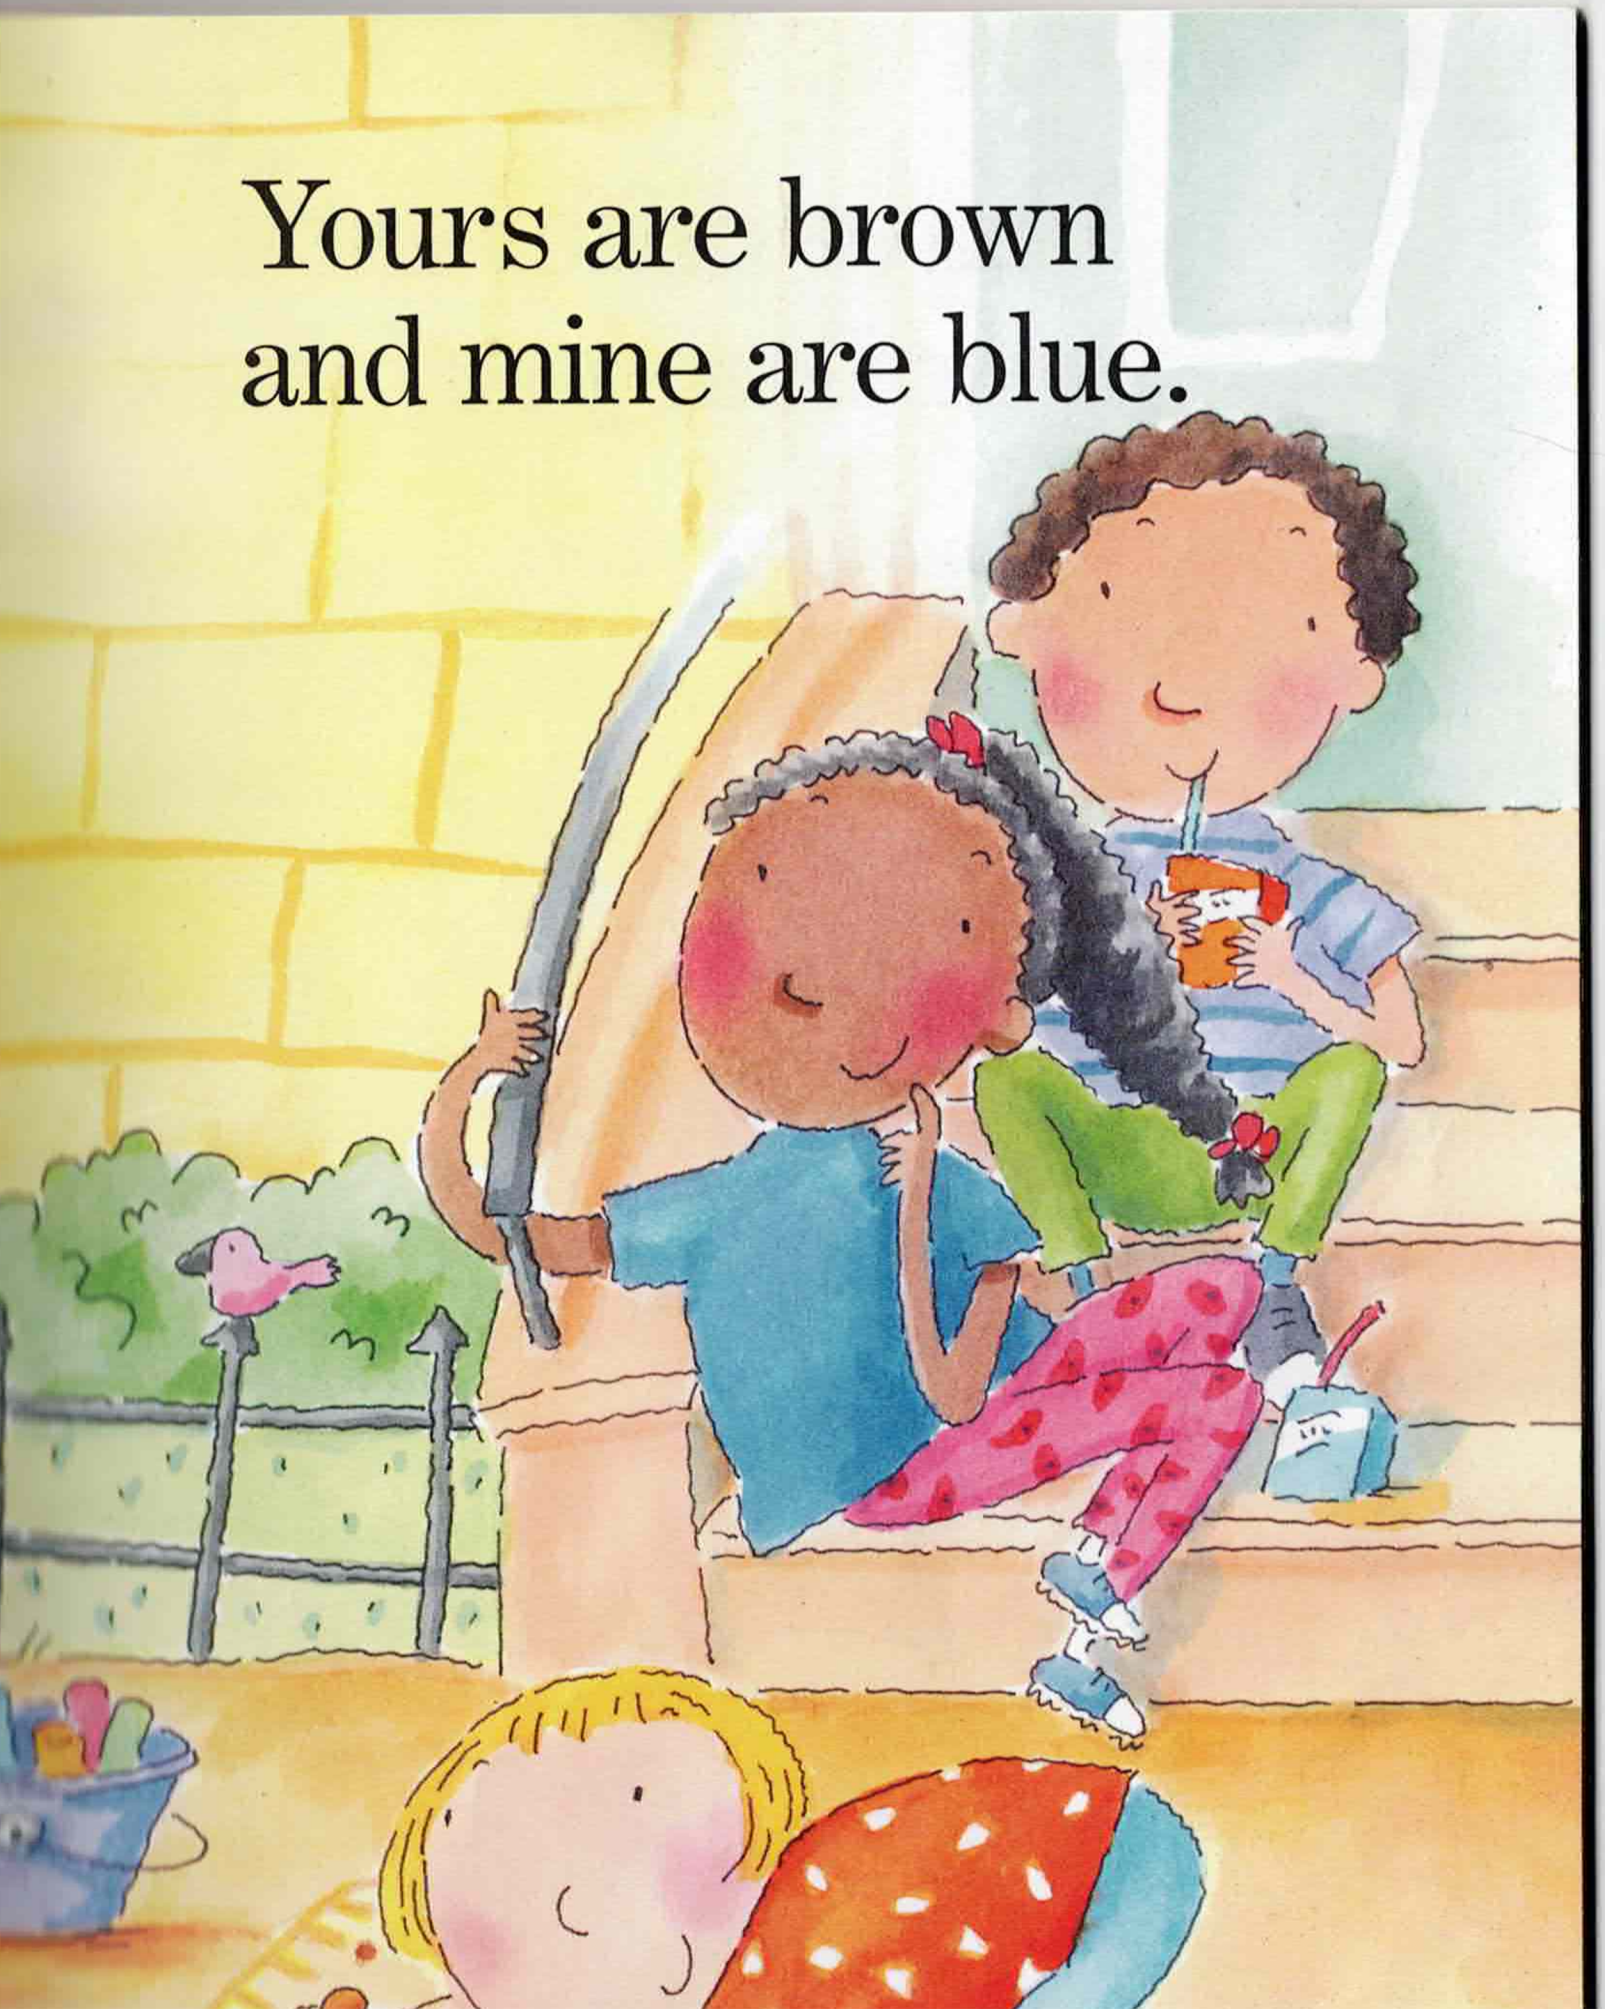
I have different
eyes than you.



Yours are brown
and mine are blue.



I have different
hair than you.

Yours is short,
and Jane's is, too!

Different ears . . .
a different nose . . .
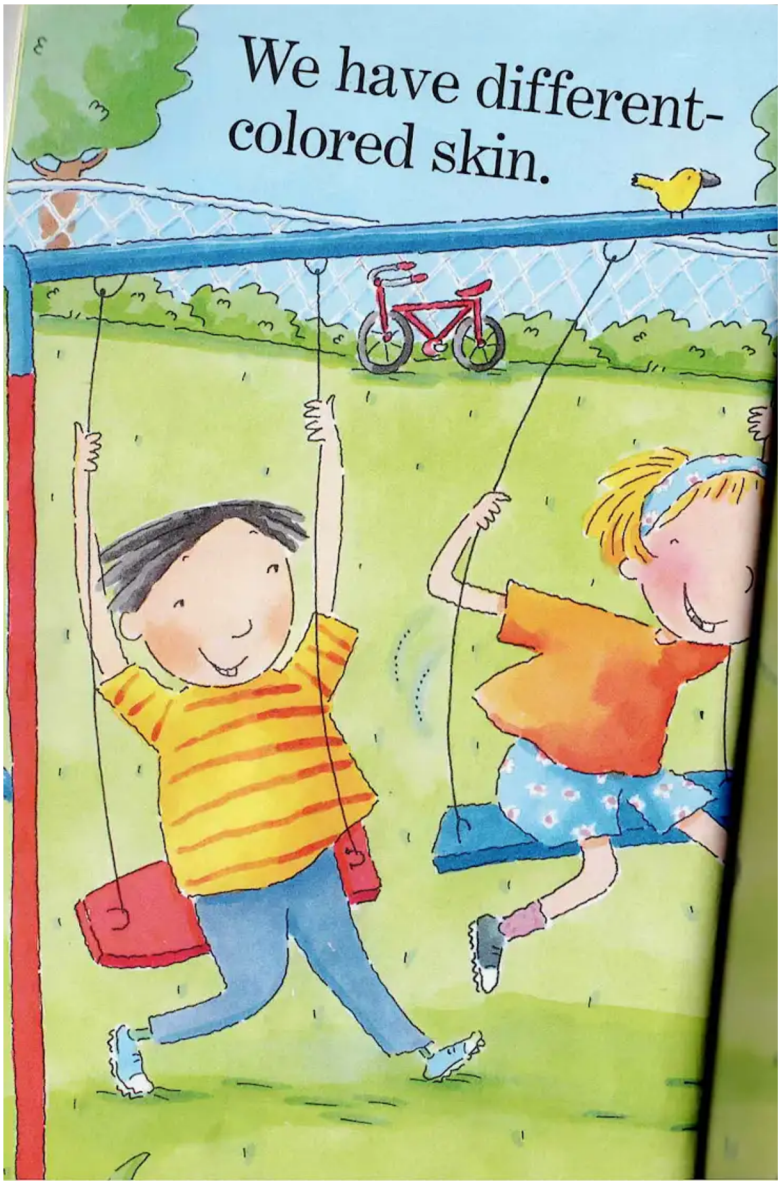
different toes.

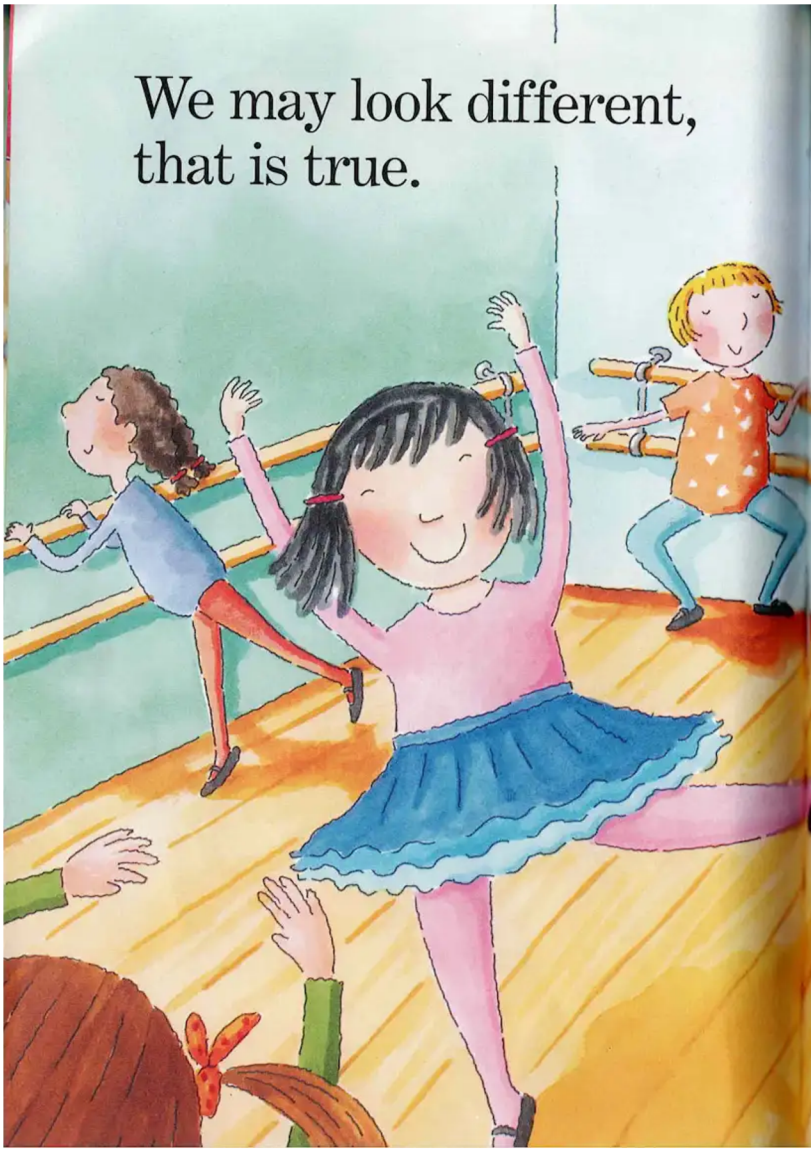
You wear braces.
So does Dee!
My new glasses
help me see.



We have different-
colored skin.

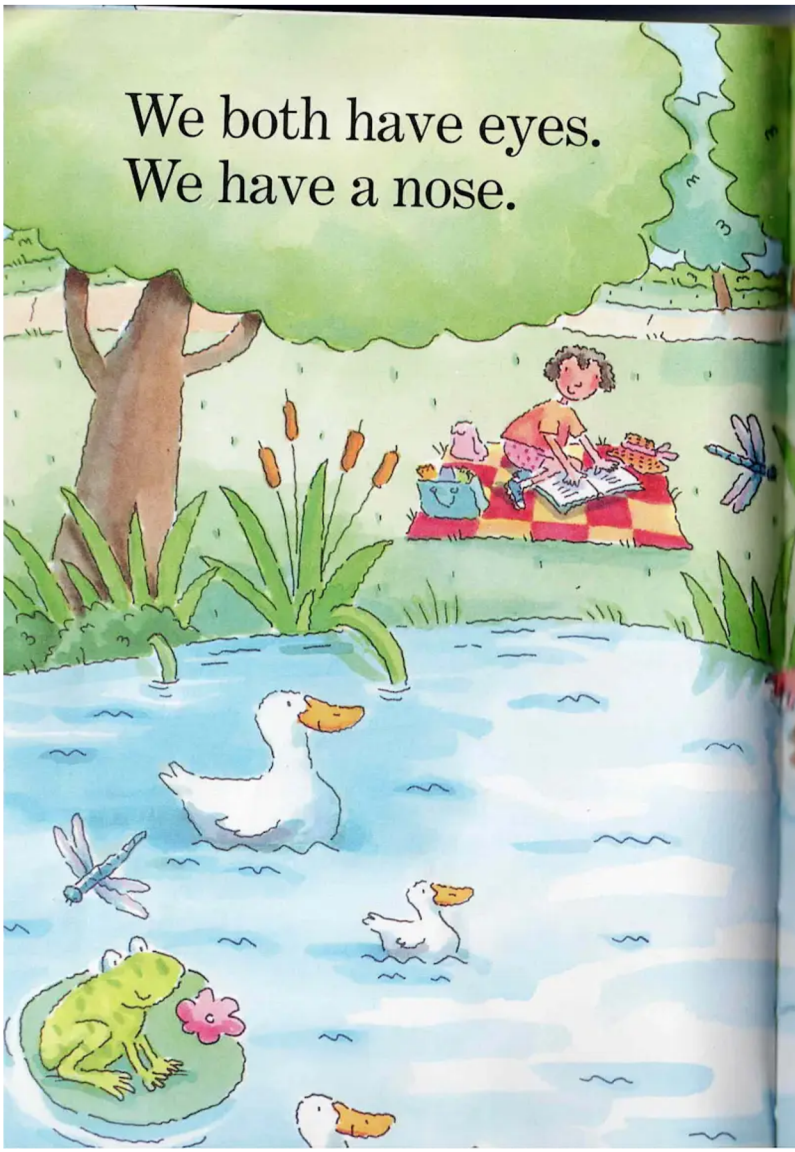
Sam has freckles
on his chin.

We may look different,
that is true.

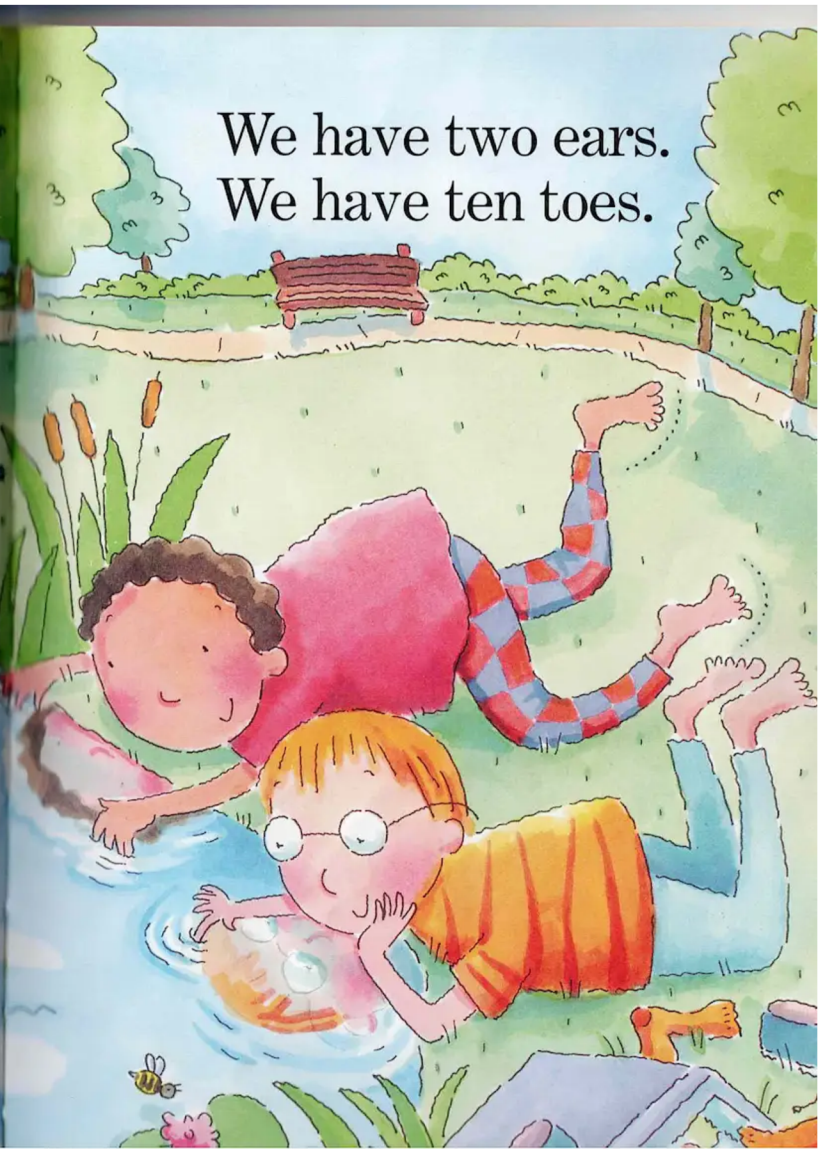


But I am also just like you!

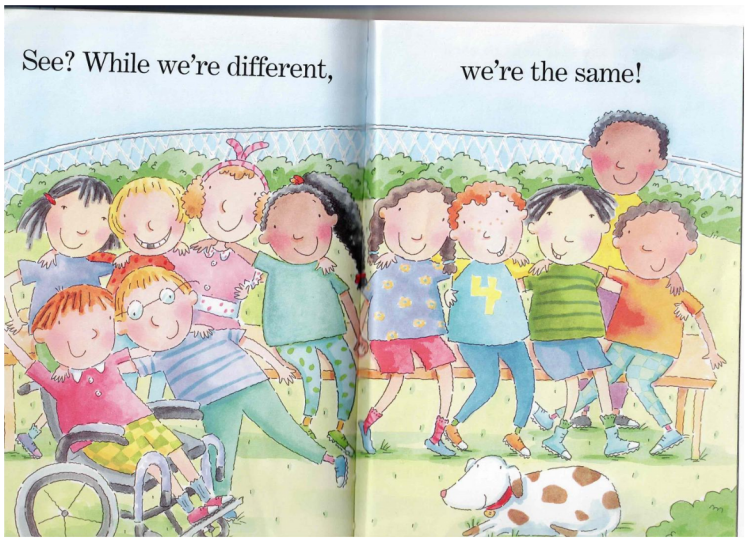
We both have eyes.
We have a nose.



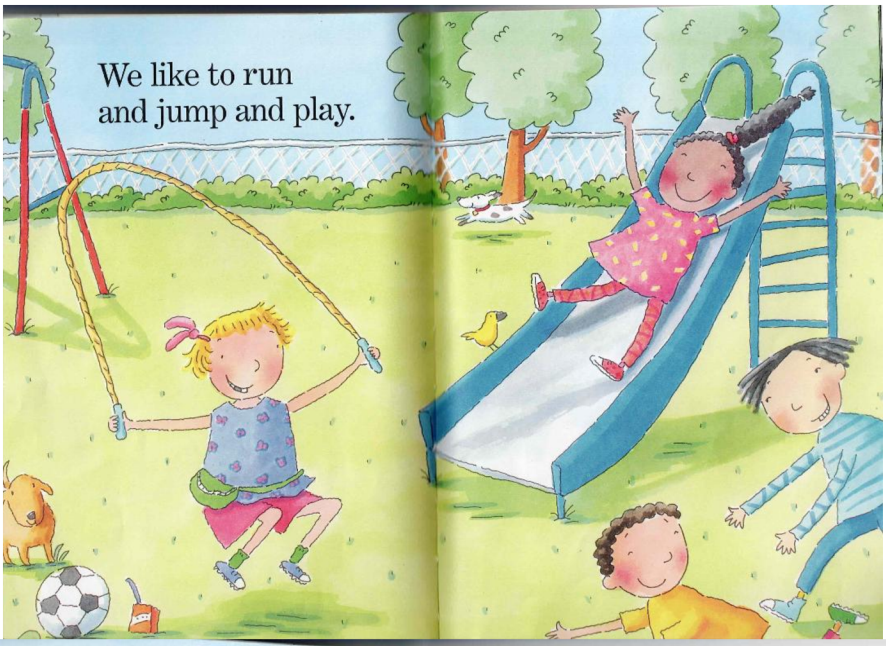
We have two ears.
We have ten toes.



We all have words
we like to say.
Want to play
soccer?
Sure!
See you at
the game.
Later!



See? While we're different,
we're the same!



We like to run
and jump and play.

Come join the fun,
come play a game.
